

lars, and be sentenced to the House of Correction for not less than six months for each and every offense.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 124. 1884, ch. 463.

219. On information made under oath of any violation of the provisions of any of the sections of this subtitle of this Article, to any justice of the peace for Charles County, such justice of the peace shall forthwith issue his warrant to the sheriff or any constable of said county, requiring said officer to proceed forthwith to arrest the party alleged to have been engaged in said violation, and bring him before said justice at once for trial, and upon conviction he shall be fined and punished as provided by the preceding section.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 125. 1884, ch. 463.

220. The said justice of the peace shall either give the case an immediate hearing, or at the instance of the party charged, shall appoint some early day within the next five days thereafter, to hear the case, the party charged with violation of Section 218 giving such good and sufficient security as said justice shall require for his appearance; and any person feeling himself aggrieved by any conviction or judgment of said justice, shall have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court for Charles County, which shall hear and determine the same as other cases on appeal.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 126. 1884, ch. 463.

221. It shall not be lawful for any person, not a citizen of Charles County, to take or catch oysters with tongs, or any other instrument, in any of the tributaries of the Potomac River, adjacent to the shores of Charles County, without a license; and every applicant for a license to use any canoe or other boat in catching oysters with rakes or tongs shall be required to make oath or affirmation before the Clerk of the Court authorized to issue the same, or before some justice of the peace of Charles County, upon whose certificate of the taking of such oath or affirmation the said Clerk of the Court shall issue such license, that the applicant for the license has been a resident and citizen of Charles County for the twelve months next preceding said application; that he will not violate any of the provisions of any of the sections of this subtitle of this Article; that he will arrest and seize, or assist in arresting and seizing, all persons and boats, vessels and equipments, engaged in violating the provisions of said sections, so far as it may be in his power so to do, and that he is the bona fide owner of the boat or canoe to be used, the length of which must also be stated. Any person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of said sections shall be fined in a sum not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 9, sec. 127. 1884, ch. 463.

222. Every applicant for a tonger's license shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles County, for the same, the following fees, to wit: For a boat or canoe measuring in length twenty feet or less, the sum of