

as is practicable, the said governing body of Cambridge, shall by resolution and ordinance declare and make said suburban section urban territory, and the same shall become part of said urban territory of said town, after the day named in the said resolution and ordinance for it to take effect, and the property in and the people residing in said section shall then and thereafter become subject to all of the provisions of the Charter of Cambridge, and all of the ordinances made and passed thereunder, and said new urban territory shall be made part of whichever of the existing wards of the urban territory, as said section shall be most contiguous to, which may be best for the best operation and effect of the Charter and Ordinances of Cambridge, applicable to the urban territory thereof, and should said section be contiguous to two or more wards of said urban territory, then the existing lines of division between said wards, as said division lines are before the addition of said new section, shall be extended through the said new section so that said new section, in parts, may be attached to and become part of the several wards as the said lines of division extended, may divide said new section into parts, each part to a contiguous ward. And when any such section of suburban territory shall be so made urban territory, all of the property therein shall then and thereafter become subject to all of the provisions of the Charter and of the Ordinances of Cambridge, and the people residing therein shall be subject to all of the said provisions of the Charter and Ordinances, with all the rights, obligations and duties therein set forth, including the right to register and vote and hold office, under the Charter and ordinances of the town of Cambridge.

And any male or female person, who at the time the said suburban territory shall be made urban territory, as aforesaid, who possesses the qualifications required by the constitution of the United States and of the State of Maryland, and who has been a bona fide resident of the town of Cambridge for one year and of the said suburban section, which shall be made urban territory, and become part of the ward of said town wherein he or she proposes to vote, for two months next preceding any municipal election, shall have the right to register in said ward and vote at any such municipal election as though any such person had lived for two months preceding such election in the said ward, where they may propose to vote, and any such person shall be duly qualified to hold office under the Charter of the town of Cambridge, as though they had resided in said ward for two months preceding the said election, providing they have the other qualifications therefor required by the said Charter.

And all the streets, highways and public thoroughfares in such section of suburban territory as shall be so made urban territory, shall be part of the streets, highways and public thoroughfares of the town of Cambridge.

1927, ch. 573, sec. 42, sub-sec. 3.

43. In the suburban territory, unless and until its classification is changed to that of urban territory, in the way hereinbefore provided, the property and the people residing therein shall not be subject to any of the
