

Second Ward: This ward begins at the southeast corner of High Street and Gay Alley; thence in a southerly direction, parallel with Pine Street, to a boundary planted in the middle of Muir Street, distant four hundred and eighty-three feet in a westward direction from the kerb of the westward side of Race Street; thence in a line parallel with said Pine Street in a southward direction a distance of one hundred and ninety-four and seven-tenths feet to another boulder there planted; thence in a southeast direction three hundred and forty-eight feet to the northwest corner of the store now occupied by E. M. Skinner & Brother, said last name boulder being one hundred and thirty-four feet distant from the westward kerb of Race Street; thence in a southward direction parallel with Pine Street to a boulder planted in the middle of Washington Street; thence with the middle of Washington Street, in a westward direction three hundred and forty-eight feet to a boundary there planted; thence parallel with Pine Street to the southern limits of the said town; thence with the western boundary of said town to the Horn's Point Road; thence therewith westerly to the second boundary; thence with the western limits to intersect a line drawn from the southeast corner of High Street and Gay Alley parallel with Glasgow Street; thence with said line reversed parallel with Glasgow Street to the beginning.

Third Ward: This ward begins at the foot of Gay Street; thence with Court Lane to the northwest edge of High Street; thence with the northwest edge of High Street to a point opposite the southeast corner of High Street and Gay Alley; thence across High Street to the southeast corner of High Street and Gay Alley; thence in a southerly direction, parallel with Pine Street, to the middle of Muir Street; thence with the middle of Muir Street to the middle of Cambridge Creek; thence down the middle of Cambridge Creek to intersect the first line of the First Ward, and therewith to the place of beginning.

Fourth Ward. This ward begins at the foot of Muir Street; thence with the middle of Muir Street to a boundary planted in the middle of said Muir Street distant four hundred and eighty-three feet in a westward direction, from the curb on the westward side of Race Street; thence in a southeast direction parallel with Pine Street, one hundred and ninety-four and seven-tenths feet to a boundary there planted; thence in a southeastward direction three hundred and forty-eight feet to the northwest corner of the store now occupied by E. M. Skinner & Brother. Said last-named boulder being one hundred and thirty-four feet distant from the westward curb of Race Street; thence in a southward direction parallel with Pine Street to a boundary planted in the middle of Washington Street; thence three hundred and forty-eight feet with the middle of Washington Street in a westward direction to a boundary there planted; thence with a line parallel with Pine Street to the southern limits of the town; thence with the southern and eastern limits of said town to the foot of Cemetery Avenue and the middle of Cambridge Creek; thence down the middle of Cambridge Creek to a point opposite the middle of Muir Street; thence to the place of beginning.