

Fifth Ward: This ward begins at the middle of Cambridge Creek on the line from the foot of Cemetery Avenue parallel with Maryland Avenue in East Cambridge; thence with said line to the stone on the county road to East Cambridge; thence with the extreme eastern boundary line to the Choptank River, and out into the said river in the same direction to the middle thereof; thence down the middle of said river to intersect the line of the First Ward; thence with said line to the mouth of Cambridge Creek; thence up said creek with the middle thereof to the place of beginning.

RECORDS.

46. The Commissioners shall provide and keep three classes of record books: First, the minute books; second, the ordinance books; third, the general record books. They shall also keep an assessment book, and they may keep such other books as may be necessary. The minute books shall contain memoranda and entries showing the proceedings of the Commissioners as they occur. When an ordinance is passed, the minute book shall show its number and title, and shall set forth the number of Commissioners who voted for and the number who voted against it. The minute book shall also show the transactions of the Commissioners, and a memorandum of all contracts entered into by the Commissioners shall be entered in said book, together with the names of the Commissioners who voted for and those who voted against such contract. All ordinances passed by the Commissioners shall be set out in full in the ordinance book, with the proper number affixed thereto and the date of the enactment of such ordinance placed at the end thereof. The Commissioners of Cambridge are hereby declared to have full power and authority to pass all ordinances which have been passed by the said Commissioners, and all ordinances so passed and recorded in the ordinance book, now in use by the Commissioners, are hereby declared to be valid and in full force and effect. In the general record book shall be recorded all notices, papers, documents, petitions, certificates and other papers connected with the election of Commissioners and other municipal elections, all contracts, in full, entered into by the Commissioners with other persons, and all other papers and documents which the Commissioners may order to be recorded therein. Extracts from any of the municipal record books, copies from any papers or documents, recorded therein, and copies of any ordinance set out in the ordinance book shall be admissible in evidence, when pertinent and relevant, in any of the courts of this State, or before any justice of the peace thereof, when verified by a certificate signed by the town clerk and authenticated by the corporate seal, provided, that the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, when the extract or copies are to be used outside of said county, shall certify by his hand and the seal of the said court that the person who verifies the said extract or copy is the Town Clerk of Cambridge; and provided, that no extract shall be made by the
