

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

1894, ch. 538, sec. A. 1900, ch. 339, secs. 2 and 3.

109. If any person, on or near any public street or other highway in the Town of Cambridge, or at or near any place of public resort, or at or near any place in said town where people are assembled for amusements or other lawful purpose, in the hearing of any person or persons then and there being or passing, shall curse, swear, or use profane or indecent language, or shall anywhere within the corporate limits of said town, be guilty of any disorderly conduct to the disturbance of the public peace, or shall be guilty of any indecent act or exposure in the view of any persons then and there being or passing, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, upon presentment or indictment in the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, or upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in and for said county, upon conviction thereof in said Circuit Court in cases removed from before a justice of the peace for trial therein, such persons shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, and shall be adjudged to pay the cost of the prosecution, and shall stand committed ten days, unless fine and costs are sooner paid. Any person convicted under this subsection, unless he pay the fine and costs imposed upon him by the judgments of the court or justice, shall be placed by the sheriff or his deputy in a separate part of the jail and fed on bread and water; and the sheriff shall receive one-third less for boarding or feeding this class of persons than is now or may hereafter be allowed and paid for other prisoners.

1894, ch. 538, sec. B.

110. All fines imposed under Section 109 and all fines imposed by the Circuit Court for said county, or by any justice of the peace for any misdemeanor committed within the corporate limits of Cambridge, in any case where the information on oath was laid by the bailiff or any policeman in the service of said town, or in any case where the arrest is made by such bailiff, deputy bailiff or any policeman thereof, shall belong and be paid to the Commissioners of Cambridge; the said Commissioners shall also be entitled to all fines imposed for the violation of the town ordinances. The provisions of Section 109 and of this section shall prevail and take effect within the corporate limits of Cambridge, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

HARBOR.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 84. 1878, ch. 70.

111. It shall not be lawful to build or erect any wharf, pier, improvement, or any structure of any kind, in Cambridge Creek or its branches, or extend the same from either shore, or to extend any wharf, pier, or other improvement, already existing beyond or outside the building-line established by the report of the Commissioners appointed under the Act
