

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 92. 1867, ch. 53.

121. The said Commissioners, on the first meeting after said election, shall choose some one of their number president of the board, whose duty it shall be to preside at their meetings, and preserve order and give such direction as may be deemed necessary by them to carry into effect the provisions of this subtitle of this Article.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 93. 1867, ch. 53.

122. They may meet together from time to time as often as occasion may require, upon the business of the town, and not less than once in six months, and if during the time for which they may be elected, any of the Commissioners should die, resign, remove from the said town, or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill such vacancy on ten days' notice thereof being given by the Commissioners, shall be held, which all persons qualified as is specified in Section 119, shall be entitled to vote.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 94. 1867, ch. 53.

123. They shall have power to appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and all ordinances passed by said Commissioners shall be entered by their clerk in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, and shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 95. 1867, ch. 53.

124. All fines and forfeitures, under the ordinances of the said corporation shall be recoverable as small debts are recoverable before any justice of the peace.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 96. 1867, ch. 53.

125. The limits of said town shall be defined as follows: beginning at a bridge at the head of Church Creek River on Loom Town road; thence running and binding the aforesaid river to Capt. Richard Linthicum's wharf; thence from said wharf, running by a straight line to the mouth of William T. Richardson's lane, on the road leading from Church Creek to Cambridge; thence from the mouth of said lane by a straight line to a barn belonging to Capt. Levin S. Fooks, on the road leading from Church Creek to the Black Water bridge, and thence from the said barn by a straight line to the place of beginning.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 97. 1867, ch. 53.

126. The Commissioners shall have full power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of the town and its inhabitants; for the prevention or removal of nuisances, preservation of health, and suppression of vice and immorality within the limits of the town; and they shall have power to lay an equal tax on the property within said limits, to such an amount as may from time to time
