

until fine and costs are paid, and he shall be bound to render proper service. Any person who pays to the bailiff the sum of one dollar in lieu of rendering personal service on the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares of East New Market shall receive a receipt therefor from said bailiff, exempting him from work and service on the street for term of one year, as the year is hereinbefore defined. The Commissioners shall have power and authority to pass one or more by-laws or ordinances for executing, carrying out and enforcing the provisions hereof and providing systematic arrangements in respect thereto; provided, however, that the said Commissioners shall be authorized to excuse and exempt from the provisions of this section any person who is physically unable to perform the work herein required of him.*

1914, ch. 588, sec. 162C.

250. The said "The Commissioners of East New Market" are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to issue bonds, not to exceed in amount five thousand dollars, of such form as said Commissioners may prescribe, of the denomination of one hundred dollars each, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year; which bonds shall be numbered from 1 to 50 inclusive and shall become due and shall be paid by said Commissioners in the order of the sequence of the numbers thereof and beginning with Number 1 and running up to 50 in regular order, two bonds each year, the first two bonds to become due and be paid one year from date thereof, the next two, two years from date thereof, and in similar order until all of said bonds become due; the said Commissioners shall pay the interest and principal of said bonds as aforesaid out of the annual taxes levied for corporate purposes; that the said bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder or bidders for cash by the said Commissioners, which said bonds shall be exempt from county and municipal taxation in Dorchester County. The money arising from the sale of said bonds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be expended by said Commissioners in securing an ample supply of water for all town purposes and for the use of its citizens, by sinking or having sunk artesian wells and the construction of or having constructed such standpipe, or standpipes, reservoir or reservoirs, pipes, under ground or over ground in the streets or elsewhere, hydrants and all other necessary structures and appliances necessary to the construction of waterworks sufficient and ample for the needs of said town and its citizens and for the purchase of all land, appliances and machinery necessary for said waterworks; and for the use of which water the said Commissioners may charge all users a reasonable amount in proportion to the service rendered; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to levy annually upon all property taxable in the said Town of East New Market, as soon as said waterworks are contracted for, a tax, in addition to those already allowed by law, of ten cents on the one hundred dollars, which tax shall be set apart for the

*Sec. 2, ch. 96, 1906, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.