

same, or for any reasonable purpose for the good of the water service, to enter any private property, at any reasonable time.*

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 163. 1861, ch. 99. 1872, ch. 156. 1880, ch. 456. 1884, ch. 362.

252. Dorchester County is divided into fourteen election districts, according to their present bounds and limits; the seventh or Cambridge district is divided into two precincts, to be known as East Cambridge or first precinct, and West Cambridge or second precinct, according to their present bounds and limits as established by law, in each of which election districts and precincts all elections for public officers shall be held at the places now established by law.

1890, ch. 276.

253. A new precinct is hereby created in Cambridge, or Seventh Election District of Dorchester County, to be known as the "Third, or Dailsville Precinct," and it shall consist of all that part of said Seventh Election District lying west of a line commencing at the mouth of Jenkins' Creek; thence running with the centre of said creek and the branch that divides the Chamberlaine farm to the county road; thence in about a southern direction to a point in the centre of the Bayly Road, opposite the residence of Thos. Woolford, colored; thence with the Bayly Road and Church Creek Road, to limit of Church Creek, or Number Nine Election District of said county, the precinct hereby created being a part of the present western precinct, and the voting place for said Third, or Dailsville Precinct, shall be at Dailsville; the County Commissioners of Dorchester County are hereby directed to make all necessary provisions for voting in said precinct as they are now required by law for other polling places in said county.

1898, ch. 517, sec. 1.

254. A new precinct is hereby created in Cambridge from the Seventh Election District of Dorchester County, to be known as the Fourth Precinct, and it shall consist of all that part of said Seventh Election District lying west of a line commencing at the foot of High Street in the town of Cambridge, thence running south with the middle of High Street to Puncheon Bridge or Washington Street, thence westerly with said Washington Street, to the divisional line of Dailsville Precinct, where it crosses the county road in front of the Chamberlaine farm; the precinct hereby created being a part of the present Second Precinct of said Seventh Election District, and the Supervisors of Elections are hereby directed to make all necessary provisions for voting in said precinct as they are now required by law for other polling places in said county.

*Sec. 162D, ch. 78, 1916, authorizes East New Market to issue $5,000 of bonds for extending water works.