

false swearing in such reports and affidavits shall be deemed perjury and be punished as such.

SURVEYOR.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 1, sec. 228. 1884, ch. 323.

627. The Surveyor of Allegany County shall be entitled to charge for his individual services, under warrant of survey or resurvey, directed from the land office, under orders or warrants of resurvey directed from the courts of law, and under orders from courts of equity, a per diem of five dollars for each day he may be necessarily engaged in performing the duty the said orders or warrants enjoin upon him; and in case it shall be necessary for him, in performing his duties in any of said cases, to survey under ground, in coal, or other mines, he shall be entitled to charge a per diem of seven dollars for each day he may be so engaged surveying under ground; and where the same shall be required by the person for whom the service is rendered, the surveyor shall state his account for such services under oath; and he may demand his per diem for his services at the end of each and every day of the rendering of such services, from the person for whom the same are rendered; and if such party or parties refuse to pay the same, he may decline and refuse to render any further services in the matter until such demand is complied with.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 1, sec. 229. 1874, ch. 124.

628. Said surveyor shall be entitled to an office in one of the public buildings of the county, to be furnished by the County Commissioners, and to consist of two rooms, in one of which shall be kept the public records of the county, open at all reasonable hours to public inspection; and if the County Commissioners shall so prefer, they may, instead of furnishing such office to said surveyor, levy and pay to him a sum of not less than one hundred nor more than one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum, for office rent; provided, that the said surveyor shall always keep all public records in his possession open to public inspection in said office, at all reasonable hours; and provided further, that said surveyor's office shall always be kept in the City of Cumberland.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 1, sec. 230. 1878, ch. 205.

629. Said surveyor shall be entitled to charge for searches of the records in his possession, or for making extracts or copies therefrom, the same fees as are allowed to clerks of Circuit Courts in this State for similar services.

TRESPASS.

P. L. L. (1888), Art. 1, sec. 231. 1860, Art. 1, sec. 163.

630. No person who does not bona fide reside in Allegany County shall drive or cause to be driven, or permit any of his horses, hogs, sheep or