

1894, ch. 491, sec. 5.

261. At the January session of the General Assembly of Maryland, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and thence on, as now provided by law, the Governor of Maryland shall appoint two justices of the peace for said new district; and at their usual time for appointing constables, as now provided by law, the County Commissioners of Dorchester County shall, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, and thence on, appoint two constables for said new district; and a collector of taxes for the same shall be appointed as soon as may be convenient after the passage of this Act, as provided by the local law of Dorchester County; and the County Commissioners of said county shall cause the assessable property of the said district, number two, or East New Market, and number twelve, or Williamsburg, embraced in the limits of the said new district, to be transferred to the latter.

1894, ch. 491, sec. 6.

262. The provisions of Section 367 of this Article, subtitle "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," shall apply to all the territory including in this said election district, number fifteen or Hurlock, and continue in full force and effect.

1904, ch. 555.

263. The line between Election District No. 15, known as Hurlock District, and Election District No. 2, known as East New Market District, as now laid down is changed, and the lines which shall hereafter divide said district shall be as follows: Beginning at the mouth of Cabin Creek and thence running up said Cabin Creek to Lower Cabin Creek Mill, thence up Cabin Creek Mill ponds and stream and branch until said stream or branch intersects the county road leading from Cabin Creek village to Shiloh Church, thence with said road to the county road leading from East New Market to Rhodesdale, and thence with said to the Forks District line.

1892, ch. 565. 1894, ch. 601. 1900, ch. 669.

264. The Fourth or Taylor's Island* Election District of Dorchester County is hereby divided into two election districts, to be called District No. 4 or Taylor's Island District, and District No. 16 or Madison District; and all that part of the said Fourth or Taylor's Island District westward of a line beginning with the head waters of Parsons Creek and running with Stewart's Canal to its intersection, with the head waters of Black Water River, and with said river to the Big Black Water Bridge, shall constitute the new district No. 4, or Taylor's Island District, with the voting place of Taylor's Island; and all that part of said Fourth or Taylor's Island District lying to the eastward of said line of division, shall constitute the 16th or Madison District, and the voting place shall be at Madison.

*Formerly Parsons Creek District, but changed to Taylor's Island by ch. 669, of 1900.
