

1894, ch. 601, sec. 2.

265. The Governor shall, at each General Assembly by and with the advice of the Senate, appoint a register for each of said districts, and two magistrates for each of said districts; and the County Commissioners for Dorchester County shall appoint two constables for each said districts, and a collector for each, or one collector for both, as they may judge best, and shall have the power and authority to do whatever is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act; and all the election officers necessary for holding elections shall be appointed for each of said districts as they are now, or may hereafter be appointed for the other districts of said County.

1894, ch. 601, sec. 3.

266. The provisions of Section 367 of this Article, subtitle "Liquors and Intoxicating Drinks," shall be in full force and effect in each of the said districts, the Fourth or Taylor's Island District, and the Sixteenth or Madison District.†

†Sec. 4, ch. 601, 1894, repealed all laws in conflict therewith.

1906, ch. 494, sec. 1.

267. There is hereby created a new election district in Dorchester County, to be known as the Seventeenth or Salem Election District of Dorchester County, and to be formed of parts of the Third or Vienna Election District, the Eleventh or Drawbridge Election District, and the Fourteenth or Linkwood Election District of said county, and the polling place of said new district shall be in the village of Salem.

1906, ch. 494, sec. 2.

268. The boundaries of said new district shall be as follows: Beginning at the bridge on the county road at Little Brick Mills, and following the mill stream southward to the Chicacomico River; thence with said river southward to the Transquakin River; thence following said Transquakin River northward to Dumpling Point; thence northward with the center line of the branch known as Middletown Branch to the double bridges at Middletown; thence westward to the junction of the Linkwood Road at the Middletown Schoolhouse; thence with said road northward to the junction of the road leading from Salem to Linkwood; thence with said road westward to the mouth of the road known as the Red Lane; thence northward with said Red Lane Road to the road leading from Little Brick Mills to Hawkeye; thence eastward with said Little Brick Mills Road to the road leading from the old Baptist Meeting House to the Little Brick Mills; thence northward to the place of beginning.

1906, ch. 494, sec. 3.

269. All persons now residing within the limits aforesaid who are registered voters in any of the said election district from which is carved the new district of Salem, and all persons residing within the limits aforesaid who are registered voters in any other district of Dorchester County