

1918, ch. 225.

274. The citizens of said the "Second or Holland's Island" Precinct as established by Chapter 227 of the Acts of 1896 shall hereafter have the right to register and to vote in Precinct No. 1 of the Tenth or Straits Election District, provided the names now enrolled on the registry for said Holland's Island Precinct shall be transferred to the registry for the said Precinct No. 1 of the Tenth or Straits Election District by the supervisors of election for Dorchester County, without charge, and that the persons whose names are so transferred shall have the right and privilege to vote at all elections hereafter held in Dorchester County.

1898, ch. 418.

275. A new precinct is hereby created in Straits, or Tenth Election District of Dorchester County, to be known as Third or Elliott's Island Precinct, and it shall consist of all that part of said Tenth Election District lying east of Fishing Bay, and known as Elliott's Island, and the voting place for said Third or Elliott's Island Precinct shall be at Elliott's Island.

The County Commissioners and Election Supervisors of Dorchester County are hereby directed to make all necessary provisions for voting in said precinct, as they are now required by law for other polling places in said county.

1914, ch. 364, sec. 1.

276. There is hereby created a new election district in Dorchester County, to be known as the Eighteenth or Elliott's Island Election District of Dorchester County, to be formed of the territory, which is now embraced in precinct number three of Election District number ten, or Straits, and the polling place shall be at the same place where the polling place of said precinct number three, of Straits Election District, is now located.

1914, ch. 364, sec. 2.

277. The boundaries of the new election district shall be the same as the present boundaries of precinct number three of Election District number ten, or Straits.

See sec. 274.

1914, ch. 364, sec. 3.

278. The Election Supervisors of Dorchester County shall provide poll books, such as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the registration of voters in each district for the said new district, and have transcribed in the said books the names, together with all other matters required by law, of all persons who are now qualified to vote in the Third Precinct of Election District number ten, or Straits, of Dorchester County.
