

constitute the whole time the said officials may be employed in one sitting, that is, from the opening of the polls until the final completion of the work; the return judges in all districts, except District No. 7, shall receive $5.00 for each day upon which the registry books are returned and in District No. 7, the return judges shall receive $2.50 for each day upon which the said registry books are returned, and that all such compensation as herein provided as well as the other expenses of elections and registrations as regulated by the General Election Laws of this State shall be paid by the Treasurer of Dorchester County upon vouchers therefor approved by the Board of County Commissioners and the Board of Election Supervisors.

284. The Board of Supervisors of Election shall cause to be printed for use in any general election not more than twenty-five per cent. more ballots than the total number of registered voters, and the said Board of Supervisors of Election shall cause to be printed for use in any primary elections not more than twenty-five per cent. more ballots than the number of voters registered in the respective party for which the ballots are printed.

1924, ch. 538, sec. 3.

285. It shall not be necessary for the Board of Supervisors of Election to deliver to the sheriff any ballots for distribution by him to any deputies, nor shall the sheriff detail or be required to detail any deputies at any of the polling places.

1924, ch. 538, sec. 4.

286. The Board of Supervisors of Election shall cause to be sent to each polling place for each general election a number of ballots not greater than twenty-five per cent. more than the total registered voters at said polling place, and the said Board of Supervisors of Election shall cause to be sent to each polling place for each primary election a number of ballots not greater than twenty-five per cent. more than the total number of persons registered at such polling place for each respective party who may have candidates to be voted upon in such election.

287. The judges of election, in addition to the authority already conferred upon them by the General Election Laws, shall have authority to direct the bailiff or doorkeeper at any election to make arrests for any breach of the peace or violation of the election laws as fully and completely as the said judges or a deputy sheriff would or could make.

1924, ch. 538, sec. 6.

288. All of the provisions of the foregoing sections shall equally apply to primary elections as well as general elections, unless otherwise hereinbefore stipulated, in so far as the same may be applicable.
