

in whole or in part, of any street, lane or alley in the town, and to enact and pass all ordinances from time to time which shall be deemed necessary and proper to exercise the powers and effect the objects above specified.

1904, ch. 165, sec. 333B.

331. The said Commissioners of Hurlock shall have full power to provide by ordinance for grading and paving or regrading and repaving all sidewalks and gutters on any street, lane or alley in said town of Hurlock, or any part thereof, and to compel the owners of the abutting property to pave and grade or repave and regrade such sidewalks and gutters, and in case the owners of the abutting property shall refuse or fail, after thirty days' notice thereof served upon such abutting property owner or posted upon said property when the same is not in the occupancy of its owner or owners, the said Commissioners shall have the work done and the material furnished, and shall cause the town bailiff to ascertain the proportion of expense chargeable to each proprietor, and may recover the same by action in the Circuit Court or before a justice of the peace, according to the amount so awarded, and may collect such award as other town taxes are collected, provided that before the passage of any ordinance requiring the whole or any portion of such sidewalks and gutters to be paved and graded or repaved and regraded, and for the assessment of the expense of such work upon the abutting owner ten days' notice shall be given in some newspaper published in the town of Hurlock, and if no newspaper be published in said town of Hurlock, then in some newspaper published in Dorchester County, and an opportunity shall be afforded all persons interested therein to be heard by and before said Commissioners.

332. If lands are needed for corporate purposes, the same proceedings shall be had for the condemnation of the same as are requisite when the County Commissioners desire to condemn lands for public use.

1929, ch. 449, sec. 335.

333. That the Commissioners of Hurlock shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall also be treasurer, and who shall collect all town taxes and all other taxes for whatsoever purpose levied or to be levied, for and within said Town of Hurlock, during the term of his or her office, or that may be placed in his or her hands for collection; and the said clerk shall have full power, and it shall be his or her duty to receive and collect all town taxes levied as aforesaid, and so put in his or her hands for collection, and all moneys due and owing to the said town from any and every source whatever; and the said clerk shall disburse all said moneys under the provisions of the law and under the order of the Commissioners of Hurlock, with full power to enforce the payment of same by sale or otherwise, and to convey the title of any real or personal estate sold by him or her for the payment of town taxes or any other taxes which may be placed in his or her hands for collection; it shall be the duty of said clerk to keep a full and a fair cash account, showing all sums of money re-
