

respective services in said criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the circuit court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 203. 1884, ch. 510.

353. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of Section 351 shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the County Commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1900, ch. 412. 1910, ch. 525 (p. 819). 1912, ch. 426, sec. 203A.

354. That in every criminal case brought before any justice of the peace for Dorchester County, wherein the defendant is found guilty, upon confession or trial, and is fined, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to collect the fine at once, and on the first Monday of every month to make out a list of all the cases in which a fine was imposed, and in said list he shall give the date of each fine, and he shall credit himself with every fine which the defendant refused or failed to pay, and was thereupon ordered to stand committed till fine and costs were paid; and whenever required by the Treasurer of Dorchester County any such justice of the peace shall produce before said treasurer his criminal docket; such justice of the peace shall on the first Monday of every month, as aforesaid, pay to the Treasurer of Dorchester County the amount of the fines which he has collected to said date and has not before paid over to the said treasurer, and all fines received by the said treasurer as aforesaid shall be applied by the County Commissioners toward county expenses in Dorchester County; and if the said justice of the peace refuses or fails to pay over to the Treasurer of Dorchester County the amount of such fines collected by him for one month after he is herein required to pay the same over, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof he shall be sentenced to be confined in the county jail for not more than six months and pay a fine equal to the amount of the money collected by him and not paid over.

1912, ch. 426, sec. 203B.

355. Each of said justices of the peace before entering upon the duties of his office shall give to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, with the security to be approved by the County Commissioners of Dor-