

ordinance of the town of Cambridge, by the said Treasurer of Dorchester County; and the said justice's costs so deducted and collected for the trial of cases in violation of the ordinances of Cambridge shall be used and paid on account of the salary or compensation of said police justice, paid by the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, as hereinafter provided by Section 360 of this Article.

1912, ch. 698, sec. 5. 1924, ch. 55.

360. That the said police justice shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per year, or the proportionate part thereof, so long as he shall continue to act as such police justice, said salary to be paid by the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, in equal monthly instalments, and shall be paid as full compensation for services rendered under this Act; and no police justice shall charge any fee other than provided by law or receive any gratuity for making any commitment granting any release, or the performance of any duty required by law in criminal cases, or when acting as coroner; but the said County Commissioners shall in no case pay the aforesaid salary until the said police justice shall have first filed his monthly report as required by Section 359 of this Article.

1912, ch. 698, sec. 6.

361. If any police justice shall be unable by reason of sickness, absence, relationship or other temporary cause whatever to attend to his duties as such police justice, it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney for said county to designate and require another justice of the peace, to perform the duties of said police justice so sick, absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of his office, so long as the same may be necessary, and the State's Attorney shall forthwith certify any selection he may make to the County Commissioners of Dorchester County. The justice so required to perform said duties as police justice shall receive the same compensation prescribed for said police justice, and shall be paid by the County Commissioners, who shall deduct the same from the salary of the police justice for whom he was serving.*
