

number of printed blank licenses in such form as directed by Section 425, and take his receipt for the same; and the clerk shall return to the said School Commissioners at the end of the scraping season all the blank printed licenses not issued to scrapers; he shall be allowed as a fee for each license the sum of fifty cents, and shall pay the residue of the license money into the public school fund of said county, quarterly, at the same time delivering to said Commissioners an itemized statement of each license issued, containing the name of the boat, tonnage and owner.

Jones v. State, 68 Md. 613. Smith v. School Commissioners, 81 Md. 514.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 261. 1886, ch. 206.

431. It shall be the duty of the sheriff, constable or officer to the State fishery force, to arrest any person and to seize any boat found violating any of the provisions of Sections 423 to 432, inclusive, and take them at once before a justice of the peace of said county for an immediate hearing, or before a judge having criminal jurisdiction, to be dealt with according to law; and any person who shall resist any officer authorized under any of said sections to make arrests, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon indictment and conviction thereof in any court having jurisdiction, shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction not less than six months nor more than one year, in the discretion of the court; the parties tried and acquitted shall have the cost of such trial paid by the treasurer of said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 262. 1886, ch. 206.

432. For all violations of Sections 423 to 432, inclusive, the owner of the boat shall be liable to the same monied fines and cost imposed upon the person charged with said violation; the boat shall be held by the judge or justice before whom the party charged with the violation, is taken for hearing or trial; the justice shall hear and determine any charge against the owner of said boat; if a non-resident of the county, or if the offense has been committed with the knowledge and consent of the owner, he shall adjudge and impose a fine, as aforesaid, upon said owner, and hold the boat for twenty days, if said fine and cost are not sooner paid, at the end of which time he shall direct and authorize the sheriff or deputy sheriff of said county, after having given ten days' public notice in an advertisement in some newspaper printed in Cambridge, and by handbills, to sell said boat for cash to the highest bidder, and deduct the fine and all the costs, including three per cent. commissions for making the sale, and pay over the balance to the owner of said boat or lien creditors, according to their legal rights thereto, as adjusted by the auditor of said circuit court.

Jones v. State, 68 Md. 613.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 10, sec. 263. 1888, ch. 394.

433. It shall be unlawful for any person to use or employ any boat or canoe licensed to take oysters with rakes and tongs, in the waters of Dorchester, Talbot, Queen Anne's and Anne Arundel Counties, in taking