

1912, ch. 514, sec. 279D.

467. That the said County Road Engineer, whenever requested by the County Commissioners to do so, shall take charge of and supervise all contract work on the county roads and bridges entered into by the said County Commissioners with the State Roads Commission, or under the provisions of the Shoemaker Act, when not actually engaged in the general road work of said county.

1912, ch. 514, sec. 2.

468. Any law or laws, or part or parts of any law or laws heretofore enacted and affecting or pertaining to the County Commissioners or roads and ditches in said Dorchester County, are hereby saved and shall remain in full effect and force, except so far as the same or any of them may be repealed by or may be inconsistent and in conflict with the provisions of this Act.

1927, ch. 480, sec. 279E.

469. The County Road Engineer of Dorchester County, upon his own authority, or upon direction of the County Commissioners of said county, during the months of January, February and March, shall order any of the county roads of said county, which are not under the control and supervision of the State Roads Commission, closed to all traffic except passenger vehicles carrying not more than seven persons or one thousand pounds in weight, vehicles run upon rails or tracks, police vehicles, fire engines or fire trucks, and vehicles provided for the transportation of school children, at such times and for such periods of time as in his or their judgment, as the case may be, said road or roads are in condition to be susceptible to unreasonable damage. The County Road Engineer shall post a suitable sign or signs on such road or roads as may be determined upon, clearly displaying proper notice of the closing of such road or roads as herein provided, and when, in the judgment of the County Commissioners, or of the County Road Engineer, said road or roads are again in condition for general use, said sign or signs shall be removed by said County Road Engineer.

1927, ch. 480, sec. 279F.

470. Any person or persons, firm or corporation, disregarding such signs, posted as hereinbefore provided, and making use of any road or roads in said county, contrary to such notice, or who shall remove, mutilate or disfigure said sign or signs, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof before any magistrate having criminal jurisdiction in said county, or in the circuit court for said county, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars for each subsequent offense, and to stand committed until the fine and costs of prosecution are paid, the amount of the fine to be determined as nearly as may be in accordance with the amount of damage done to the road in
