

order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens, and to suppress, abate or discontinue all nuisances within the corporate limits of said town they may pass all ordinances or by-laws from time to time necessary, and to insure the observance of such ordinances in addition to the action of debt or such other civil remedies as may exist in such cases by law for the recovery of the penalties thereunto affixed, they may affix thereto such reasonable fines, not exceeding fifty dollars in any case, as to them may appear right, and in the default of the payment of any fines imposed they may provide for the imprisonment of the offenders in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days, or until the said fine is paid, all such infractions of ordinances shall be triable before a justice of the peace or before the circuit court.

1912, ch. 199, sec. 15.

491. The bailiff shall perform such duties as the Commissioners shall direct; he shall preserve the peace, prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the Commissioners; he shall serve all notice or process required by said Charter, or any ordinance passed by virtue thereof, and his return duly endorsed thereon shall be evidence of the facts therein stated, and he shall receive the same fees as are allowed to constables for like services.

1912, ch. 199, sec. 16.

492. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by the Charter or by the ordinances of the Commissioners may be collected in the name of the Town of Secretary before any justice of the peace in the same manner as small debts are collected, and the delinquent shall be committed to the town lockup or county jail until the same be paid with costs.

1912, ch. 199, sec. 17.

493. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any court or justice of the peace for violations of the Charter, by-laws or ordinances shall belong to and be paid to the Commissioners of Secretary.

1912, ch. 199, sec. 18.

494. The Commissioners may borrow money on their negotiable paper; provided that the sum so borrowed shall at no time exceed the sum of three hundred dollars.

1912, ch. 199, sec. 19.

495. The year for repairing the highways and streets of said town shall be reckoned from the 1st day of January inclusive in one year to the 1st day of January exclusive of the next year. Every able-bodied male person between the age of twenty-one and fifty years, who has resided in said town for four months shall be bound to work on said highways and streets for one day in every year, as the year is herein defined, and if any person who is liable to render such service fails to attend on notice