

conviction thereof in the circuit court for said county, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or until the payment of said fine and costs; one-half of said fine to be paid to the County Commissioners, for the use of the public schools of the county, and the other half to the informer.

VIENNA.

1914, ch. 563, sec. 1.

519. The citizens of the town of Vienna, in Dorchester County, Maryland, are hereby created a body corporate, by the name of "The Commissioners of Vienna," with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued and have and use a common seal; and may receive in trust and control and dispose of for the purposes of said trust and invest and reinvest any character of property in aid of any charitable purpose or for the relief of the poor and afflicted of the town.

1914, ch. 563, sec. 2.

520. The boundaries of said town shall be as follows: Beginning for the outlines of the same at the door or mouth of the old brick lime kiln, standing on the northwest side of the Nanticoke River just above the railroad bridge at the said town; and from thence runs N. 45° 22' W. by a straight line to telephone pole No. 748 of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, standing on the east side of the county road leading from Vienna to Ralph's; thence with the east side of said County Road, in a southern direction to the State Road; thence across same to the rear of the lot of Henry James; thence still in a southern direction with the rear of the lots of Henry James, Clarence Higgins, George W. Millard, James A. Higgins, Geo. H. Webb and John W. T. Webb, and far enough to intersect a straight line drawn from the Nanticoke River dividing the property of William J. Layton and the late James A. Hughes; thence in an eastern direction with said division line to the Nanticoke River; and thence with same to the place of beginning, including in same all wharf property with the improvements.

1914, ch. 563, sec. 3. 1916, ch. 28, sec. 3. 1918, ch. 361. 1929, ch. 293, sec. 3.

521. The citizens of Vienna, aforesaid, of twenty-one years and upwards, being citizens of the State of Maryland, who have resided in said town for and during the space of six months immediately preceding any town election, shall, on the first Monday of May, 1930, and every two years thereafter on the first Monday in May, elect five Commissioners to serve for two years and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Each of such Commissioners shall be a resident of said town, shall have actually resided therein not less than six months next preceding his or her election, shall continue to reside therein during his or her term of office, shall be the owner of real estate within said town of Vienna, and