

1914, ch. 563, sec. 4.

522. Richard James, Daniel J. Gore and J. Millard Reid, are hereby appointed Judges of Election, to hold the first election under this Act; and they shall give notice that the election will be held and the place and time thereof by handbills posted in public places in said town, at least ten days before the date thereof; which election shall be held on the first Monday of May, 1914, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient; (any vacancy in said judges caused by death or otherwise to be filled by the remaining judges). At which election all persons qualified as prescribed in Section 521 of this Article shall be entitled to vote for five persons for Commissioners having the necessary qualifications as herein prescribed. Such Judges of Election shall, however, before opening the polls, take the oath before some justice of the peace to permit every qualified voter to vote, and none other, and a majority of said judges shall have power to do all things committed unto said judges.

1914, ch. 563, sec. 5. 1929, ch. 293, sec. 5.

523. The five Commissioners elected shall, within ten days after their election, meet and organize, by choosing one of their number to be president of the board, and all vacancies occurring in the board, either by death, removal from the town, resignation or refusal to act as Commissioner, shall be filled by the remaining Commissioners by electing some adult citizen of said town who possesses the required qualifications for being Commissioner, and he or she shall hold office for the unexpired term for which he or she was elected or until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified.

524. The Commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town on every first Monday in the month of April, July, October and January succeeding their election, for the transaction of their business as such Commissioners, and as much oftener as they shall deem necessary to the discharge of their duties as such Commissioners.

1914, ch. 563, sec. 7. 1916, ch. 28, sec. 7. 1929, ch. 293, sec. 7.

525. Said Commissioners shall, not more than thirty days and not less than ten days prior to an election of Commissioners, appoint three judges of election whose appointment shall be for a period of two months from the date thereof and who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the State of Maryland; except, that the hours for holding the election shall be from three o'clock to seven o'clock P. M.; except, further, that one of said judges may act as clerk of said election; and except, further, that no registration shall be required to entitle any adult citizen offering to vote to have his or her ballot received and counted. The said judges of election shall, at least seven days prior to the holding of any town election, give notice to the voters of Vienna of the time and place of holding such election, by posting printed notices thereof at not less than
