

1920, ch. 714, sec. 15.

655. All ordinances of the said town of Westernport not inconsistent with any of the powers and provisions of this Act, shall be and remain in full force and power until repealed, altered, changed or modified by the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport and that the present officials of the town of Westernport shall continue to hold office as such officials after the expiration of their respective terms for which they were elected until their successors are duly elected and qualified as provided by this Act, exercising any and all of the powers, duties and privileges granted to the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport, as a corporation or to any of its officials to the fullest extent as set forth in this Act.

656. The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport, in Allegany County, a municipal corporation, is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the faith and credit of the said corporation a sum of money not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), and to issue bonds therefor under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

1910, ch. 531, sec. 2 (p. 525).

657. The said the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport is hereby authorized and empowered at any time or times hereafter to enact an ordinance or ordinances setting out the purpose or purposes for which the money provided under this Act shall be applied, and the approximate cost of each item of expenditure, and to submit the same to the qualified voters of said Town of Westernport, at an election or elections, shall in all particulars not herein provided for, be held under the supervision and direction of the said the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport, and in the manner in which the general elections of the said town are held, and this Act shall not be effective unless a majority of the votes cast at such an election shall declare the assent of the voters to the borrowing of said money and the issuing of said bonds mentioned in said ordinance, and to the purposes to which said money shall be applied.

658. The ordinance or ordinances mentioned in Section 657 of this Act shall clearly set forth the amount of the bonds which the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport desire to issue, a general description of the purposes or improvements to which the money is to be applied, and an estimate of the approximate costs in carrying out such improvement, and that the proposition of issuing bonds under this Act may be submitted by the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport to the qualified voters by ordinance as herein provided for at any time until the full amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) as herein provided for shall be authorized, and that the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport may, if they desire, incorporate in said submission two or more distinct
