

1902, ch. 409, sec. 24D.

64. When any judgment by default shall be entered under any of the preceding sections the Court may at any time thereafter assess the damages upon proof thereof without impaneling a jury to do so.

1902, ch. 409, sec. 24E.

65. On all judgments entered in said Court there shall be a stay of execution until the return day or the first day of the term, whichever shall first occur next succeeding the return day or the first day of the term at which said judgment may have been entered, with the right to the defendant to supersede the same for six months from the expiration of said stay as now allowed by law; provided, however, that the Court may, on motion in writing by the plaintiff or his attorney, showing sufficient reasons therefor, allow an execution or attachment or other proper writ to be issued at any time after the entry of judgment as aforesaid and before the expiration of said stay.

Betz v. Welty, 116 Md. 190.

1922, ch. 62.

66. When any defendant shall be returned non est the Clerk of the court shall upon the written request of the plaintiff, or his attorney, renew the summons for such defendant, and make the same returnable on the next return day or the first day of the term, whichever shall first occur, next succeeding.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 25. 1860, art. 1, sec. 11.

67. The trial terms of said Court shall be the term next succeeding that to which the original process shall be returnable.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 26. 1874, ch. 262.

68. In all cases which were pending in the Circuit Court for Allegany County at the time of the formation of Garrett County, and in which title to land, now situated in Garrett County, was in controversy, and which are now pending, or in which judgment has been entered, it shall be lawful for the Circuit Court for Allegany County to proceed to final judgment and execution thereof; and in all such cases still pending, and in all other cases in which a warrant of resurvey may be necessary or proper, they may issue warrants of resurvey to the sheriff and surveyor of Garrett County, who shall execute the same as if issued by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, and make return thereof to the Circuit Court for Allegany County; and in all such cases, whether judgment has been heretofore or shall be hereafter rendered, it shall be lawful for said Circuit Court to issue writs of habere facias possessionem to the sheriff of Garrett County, to put the party, in whose favor such judgment was rendered, in possession of the land; and also writs of feri facias for costs; which said writs shall be executed by the sheriff of Garrett County in the same manner as if issued from the Circuit Court for Garrett County;
