

vided at their own expense, for instructing the voters. After each name on said ballot, or after any proposition or question submitted to the decision of the voters, and to the right thereof, shall be a square upon which the voter shall make a cross-mark to indicate the candidate of his choice, or whether he shall be in favor of or opposed to the question or proposition voted upon. If any voter cannot read or write, or is disabled by reason of any physical infirmity, he may ask one of the judges of election to mark his ballot as he desires. When a voter offers to vote the judges shall ascertain by reference if his name is on the registry of voters, and the clerks shall enter in poll books the names and residences of the voters for the respective wards as the ballots are delivered to them respectively. The Council shall also provide booths or compartments for secret voting similar to those provided under the general election law of this State and shall also provide three glass ballot boxes similar to those used at all general elections held in this State, and in the event the polls for the town shall be held at one general polling place the ballot boxes shall be numbered to correspond to the number of the respective wards; and the Council may by ordinance provide for other details not herein enumerated, the purpose being to have the election law of the town conform as nearly as practicable to the general election law of the State. In every election, whether such election be the regular election or any special election, the polls shall be opened at 8 A. M. and closed at 6 P. M.

Not more than twenty nor less than ten days preceding any general election or any special election held under this Article, there shall be appointed by the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the Council, the following officials; five judges, one from each ward, and two judges at large, one of the latter being a registration officer, three clerks, one from each ward, and one gate-keeper, who, after they shall have duly qualified before the Mayor of said town by taking the oath hereinafter prescribed, shall serve at such general election or special election in the wards for which they are respectively appointed. At the time of the appointment of the judges and clerks of election, the Mayor and Council shall also name a polling place in each ward or one general polling place. The Mayor and Council shall publish in one or more newspapers published or circulated in Brunswick the names of the judges and clerks of election, and the polling place in each ward or the general polling place designated, and the date and object of election and said notice shall be published at least twice before each election. Before proceeding to act, each judge and clerk of election shall make oath before the Mayor that he will, well and faithfully, without fear or favor, partiality or prejudice, perform the duties of judge or clerk, as the case may be, and in the case of a judge that he will deposit all legal ballots in the ballot box, and no other ballot, and that he will make out and sign correct returns of the votes cast for each candidate and of the whole number of votes cast at said election. If any person or persons, who have been appointed judge
