

any corporation, partnership or individual benefited by the passage of said order, resolution or ordinance shall not be entitled to vote in favor of said order, resolution or ordinance after the same has been vetoed by the Mayor; the concurrence of the Mayor with a majority of the Council shall be necessary for the transaction of corporate business and contracts made by the town, but it shall not be necessary to note in the minutes the approval of the Mayor of each transaction therein stated or acted upon by the Council; but the town clerk shall present to the Mayor the corrected and approved minutes of each meeting of the Council; and the Mayor shall sign his name to said minutes to signify his approval of all the matters and transactions therein recorded; but if he disapproves of any of the transactions therein recorded he shall note his disapproval at the foot of the minutes, and such disapproval shall be an effective veto of the action so disapproved of, unless said veto is overruled by the unanimous vote of the Council as hereinbefore provided.

The Mayor may suspend from office, subject to review and final action by the Council, any official or employee appointed or employed by the Mayor and Council for any neglect of duty or improper conduct in his office. The Mayor shall in case of disability or absence of the police justice preside over the Municipal Court and shall exercise all the power and authority conferred by law upon the police justice; and the Mayor shall receive the annual salary of $300.00 and no other compensation whatever; provided that the Mayor may be reimbursed for any expense actually incurred in prosecuting the official business of the municipality; and, provided further, that when the Mayor presides over the Municipal Court in case of the disability or absence of the police justice, the Mayor shall receive the same fees as are allowed the police justice, and shall make the same reports to the Council as hereinafter required of the police justice.

The Mayor shall have the power to direct the clerk of said town not to issue a license for any show, circus, theatrical performance or other entertainment whenever in his judgment the production of said show or entertainment would tend to demoralize the community or create a disturbance or disorder or be against the best interests of the town; provided, however, that if the Council should by a unanimous vote authorize the issuing of said license, then the same shall be issued by the clerk.

At the first regular meeting after each regular election for Mayor and after the qualification of the newly elected members, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the Council, shall appoint one person to be clerk, treasurer and tax collector; one person to be attorney and counsel to the Mayor and Council; and one person to be superintendent of the water-works; one person to be chief bailiff; one person to be City Engineer; all of whom shall hold office for two years and until the qualification of their successors, and three citizens of known integrity, experience and sound judgment, one of whom shall be a physician, who, together with the Mayor and City Attorney, shall
