

general business and may hold other meetings, either at their office, or elsewhere, in or without said county, as their duties may require, and on two of the remaining days of each week each of said County Commissioners shall as their duties require, supervise the special territory in said county allotted to him, in order that he may keep in close touch with the needs of such special territory.

97. Vacant.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 82. 1918 Code, Art. 117.

98. They are authorized to have all their printing and advertising done by such newspapers and in such manner as shall, in their judgment, be most conducive to the interest of the county.

1920, ch. 553.

99. Before any deed for the conveyance of real estate in Frederick County shall be received for record by the clerk of the circuit court thereof, the person offering said deed for record shall submit the same to the clerk of the County Commissioners of said county, who shall thereupon make transfer on the county assessment books of the said property to the name of the new owner or owners thereof, and as evidence of said transfer, shall stamp upon the said deed his certificate thereof, and no deed shall be received for record without such certificate.

This section shall not apply or be construed to apply in any manner to deeds offered or received for record between March 25th and April 5th, both inclusive, of each year. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

1906, ch. 41, sec. 1. 1918 Code, sec. 121.

100. The County Commissioners of Frederick County shall levy annually on the assessable property within the county liable to taxation, not less than three cents on the one hundred dollars, to create a sinking fund for the purpose of taking up the bonded debt of Frederick County, and they shall cause the same to be invested in stocks or bonds, or loaned to some national bank or savings institution for the interest, and such sinking fund, together with all interest that may accrue thereon, shall be applied to the payment of bonded debt of Frederick County, when its said bonds become due and payable.

1902, ch. 193, sec. 1. 1918 Code, sec. 122.

101. The County Commissioners of Frederick County are hereby authorized and empowered to grant to electric railway companies the right and power to build their lines of railway on and across public roads, subject to the consent of the said County Commissioners of Frederick County.