

ing a fine of one hundred dollars for any violation of the same, and the mode of enforcing such penalties; which orders, resolutions or ordinances may be for the following purposes, to wit:

To manage and control all property of the corporation, and to authorize the purchase or sale of property in the name of the corporation, and to provide for the form and manner of making contracts, to lay taxes upon all real and personal property in said town, and regulate the collection and enforcement of the same, and borrow money as authorized by Section 181 of this subtitle, and to provide for the adjustment of claims against the corporation and the payment of the same, to preserve peace and good order of the town, and punish the resistance, hindrance or obstruction of public officers in the discharge of their duties, to prevent vice, suppress gambling, houses of ill-fame and disorderly houses; to protect the town from fire and unsafe buildings and to regulate the cleaning of chimneys; to regulate the manufacture and keeping of explosives and inflammable materials or the conveyance thereof through the streets of the town; to tax and regulate the use and construction of electrical plants and wires on which electricity is conducted within the town; to tax and regulate the use and construction of telegraph and telephone lines in the said town; to protect public lamps or other public lights therein; to regulate fire companies in said town; to establish building lines on the streets and ways of the town beyond which it shall not be legal to erect buildings or other structures; to provide for the laying out, grading, discontinuing, altering, paving, opening, improving, lighting, making and repairing streets, squares, walks, drains, sewers, gutters, and to keep open and safe for public use and travel all streets, squares, alleys or any part thereof; to require sidewalks to be kept free from ice, snow or other obstructions; to regulate all shows, processions, assemblages or parades in streets or public places; to regulate the speed of animals, bicycles and automobiles and to designate over what streets or thoroughfares the same may be driven; and to prohibit the running at large of animals in the streets or public places, and for impounding the same; to tax dogs and regulate the time and manner, when public safety requires it, of running at large; to license and regulate public hacks, carriages, sleighs or public conveyances, and the charges for the use thereof; to regulate and prohibit the excavation and opening of streets, public walks and public grounds for public or private purposes, whether temporary or permanent, and the regulation of any work or thing therein; to regulate the laying and use of gas pipes, water pipes, electric light conduits, railroad tracks and drains for public or private purposes in the streets of the town; to provide for the sprinkling of streets or parts thereof and establishing of public fountains of any kind, or hydrants, and the providing the same with water; to provide for the health of the town, and the prevention of the introduction of contagious diseases therein and within one mile thereof; to prevent and summarily abate nuisances of any kind, at the expense of the persons maintaining them; to establish quarantine regulations and regulate the burial and disinterment of the dead; to provide for the licens-