

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 126. 1918 Code, sec. 181.

171. The collector shall sell so much of said property as may be necessary to pay the amount of taxes due from such delinquent, with interest thereon, together with the costs incurred by said collector, and shall, if it be real estate, convey the property sold, upon payment of the purchase money, to the purchaser thereof.

172. The said collector shall have the same power and be entitled to the same protection, in the execution of the duties of his office, as the collectors of State taxes have and are entitled to; and the delinquent taxpayer shall have the same right to redeem, and the purchaser the same remedies to recover possession of the property sold, as are given to taxpayers and to purchasers of lands sold by collectors of State taxes by the Code of Public General Laws.

1910, ch. 70, sec. 128. 1918 Code, sec. 183.

173. The burgess, by virtue of his office, shall have and exercise, within the limits of the corporation, all the jurisdiction and powers of a justice of the peace, except as to civil cases and the acknowledgment of deeds; he shall see that all the laws and ordinances of the corporation are duly and faithfully executed and enforced, and may call upon any officer of the town, entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public moneys, for a statement of his account, as often as he may think necessary; he shall be responsible for the good order and efficient government of the town, and shall, by virtue of the power and authority of his office, hear and decide any violations of the laws and ordinances of the corporation, and shall impose such fines and penalties as they prescribe, and shall keep a docket on which all such cases coming before him shall be entered, which shall state the name of the party charged, the offense charged, how tried and the judgment rendered, setting out the fine, if any imposed, and the costs of the case. He shall pay over to the town treasurer on the first Monday of each month the public moneys in his hands, and when required by the commissioners shall report in writing the general state of the town, and at any time he may recommend any matters as he may think will promote its interest. He shall approve or disapprove every order, resolution or ordinance passed by the Commissioners, and every order, resolution or ordinance shall be submitted to him by them immediately after its passage, and within ten days after date of its passage he shall act on the same, and if he shall approve it or fail to act on it within ten days from the date of its passage, which fact shall be endorsed by the clerk of the commissioners, it shall become operative and effectual; but if the burgess shall veto any order, resolution or ordinance, he shall notify the clerk of the fact and transmit his reason in writing to the commissioners at their next regular meeting, and such order, resolution or ordinance shall not become operative and effectual unless passed over his veto by the affirmative vote of all members of the board. If at any time the burgess shall think
