

any person appointed to office by him shall be incompetent or unfaithful to the duties of his office, he may file a written statement of charges against him with the commissioners, a copy of which charges shall be sent to the person charged, and the board of commissioners shall set a time to hear the same, and if, after a full hearing, they shall find such officer incompetent or unfaithful, the burgess shall remove him from his office, and with the consent and approval of the commissioners shall appoint a proper person to fill his place.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 129. 1918 Code, sec. 184.

174. All other officers, not herein named, who may be deemed necessary to execute the powers of the said corporation and the laws thereof shall be appointed in such manner as shall be directed by ordinance.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 130. 1918 Code, sec. 185.

175. All moneys arising from taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by virtue of any by-laws or ordinance of said corporation shall be appropriated to the uses thereof in such manner as may be directed by ordinance.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 131. 1918 Code, sec. 186.

176. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed under the ordinances of the corporation shall be recovered by an action of debt, in the name of the corporation, before the burgess or any justice of the peace of Frederick County, upon warrant against the offender directed to any constable of the county or of said corporation, in the same manner as small debts are recovered; and the constable shall serve the same under the same penalties as in case of summons for small debts from a justice of the peace, and shall receive the same fees therefor, to be paid by the corporation.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 132. 1918 Code, sec. 187.

177. An appeal shall lie to the Circuit Court for Frederick County from any judgment of the burgess or any justice of the peace imposing any fine, penalty or forfeiture under the ordinances of the said corporation, subject to the same conditions and regulations now provided by the general laws regulating appeals from justices of the peace; but enforcement of said judgments shall not be delayed, unless the party appealing shall give bond to the corporation in double the amount of the judgment and costs, with security approved by the burgess or justice of the peace rendering the judgment, with condition to prosecute the appeal with effect, or to pay the judgment rendered, with costs.

178. The burgess or any justice of the peace when imposing any fine, penalty or forfeiture, for the violation of any ordinance of said corporation, shall order the person convicted to be committed to the public jail if he shall fail or refuse to pay the fine, penalty or forfeiture and costs, there
