

Water Company, in Frederick County, a joint stock water company, for supplying water to the said town for fire protection, and the erection of fire plugs therein, and to pay the said water company the sum of seven dollars and fifty cents per plug, on the third Wednesday of January of each year therefor, which said fire plugs shall not be less than twenty in number and shall be furnished, erected and maintained by the said water company for said purpose at such places in said town, as said burgess and commissioners shall determine.

1912, ch. 632, sec. 139. 1918 Code, sec. 194.

184. In order to enable the burgess and commissioners of Emmitsburg to carry out the provisions of the preceding section, the said burgess and commissioners are authorized and empowered and directed to levy annually upon the taxable property within the corporate limits of Emmitsburg, in addition to the corporate taxes now allowed by law, a water tax to be levied and collected the same as other corporate taxes are levied and collected, but the said water tax so annually levied by the burgess and commissioners of Emmitsburg shall not exceed eight cents on every one hundred dollars of assessable property within the corporate limits of said town.

FEAGAVILLE.

1902, ch. 407, sec. 139A. 1918 Code, sec. 199.

185. It shall not be lawful for the owner or owners of any horse, cattle, hogs, or sheep to allow them to pasture or run at large at night time along the turnpike known as the Frederick and Jefferson turnpike, on both sides of which is located the village of Feagaville, the limits of the above prohibition to extend from the second milestone from Frederick, which is opposite the property now owned by Benjamin Zimmerman, to the fifth milestone on said pike opposite the property now owned by Maurice Rhoderick, and on all public roads within a radius of one and one-half miles from the public school house in Feagaville, Frederick County, Maryland.

1902, ch. 407, sec. 139B. 1918 Code, sec. 200.

186. For each horse, cow, calf, hog or sheep found running at large or pasturing upon the above-described turnpike and between and within the above-named limits, the owner or owners thereof shall, when adjudged guilty of the violation of the preceding section, pay a fine of one dollar ($1.00) for each head of such livestock found at large or pasturing between the above-named limits. And they shall also pay the costs of the prosecution.

1902, ch. 407, sec. 139C. 1918 Code, sec. 201.

187. Any justice of the peace of Frederick County shall have jurisdiction of any violation of the preceding sections of this subtitle. Any person