

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 141. 1918 Code, sec. 206.

192. If either of the parties making or keeping a joint fence between arable lands shall refuse to delay or repair his proportion thereof within twenty days after notice in writing, given to him or his agent, upon proof thereof before a justice of the peace, the justice may, under his hand and seal, authorize the party aggrieved to repair the fence, and for so doing he shall be reimbursed all costs and reasonable expenses necessarily incurred, to be recovered from the party so refusing and delaying in the manner debts of a like amount are recoverable; and he shall have a lien on the adjacent arable land or farm of the person who shall have refused or delayed to make and repair the fence, so as to secure the reimbursement of the costs and expenses of such making and repairing in the event of the transfer of the land; provided, the proceedings to enforce such lien be commenced by the party or his representatives within two years next after such repair shall have been done.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 149. 1918 Code, sec. 207.

193. If joint fences are not made and kept in repair according to the provisions of Section 191, the party aggrieved or likely to be injured, instead of pursuing the remedy prescribed in the preceding section, may discontinue the said fence upon giving three months' notice in writing to the party refusing or delaying, his agent or tenant; and in all other cases (unless by mutual consent), twelve months' notice shall be required to discontinue any joint fence.

FISH.

(All local fish laws were repealed by ch. 471, 1929. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 39.)

FRAUD ON LIVERY STABLE KEEPERS.

1912, ch. 677, sec. 1. 1918 Code, sec. 218.

194. If any person or persons shall hire from any livery stable keeper or owner of horses in Frederick County any horse, mare, gelding or vehicle of any description whatsoever to go to any certain place or any certain distance and shall secretly use said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle for greater distance or in going to some other place than so hired with the intent to avoid payment for such increased use, and shall fail or refuse to immediately pay the said stable keeper or owner of horses a reasonable compensation for the additional use of said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle, which additional compensation shall be rated in proportion to the increased distance and use, such person shall on conviction before any justice of the peace of Frederick County forfeit and pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifteen dollars, and upon failure or refusal to pay said fines and costs shall be committed by such justice of the peace to the jail of Frederick County for a period not exceeding thirty days, and in case of conviction as aforesaid the accused shall have a right
