

1924, ch. 407, sec. 254B. 1929, ch. 75, sec. 254B.

199. All the rights, titles and interests heretofore acquired by the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, or by any other corporation, firm or individual, are hereby saved and preserved to be availed of by the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, or any other corporation, firm or individual as fully and to the same extent as though this Act had not been passed, and nothing in this Act shall be construed as in any manner impairing the validity of any such rights, titles and interests which have accrued under said Chapter 93 of the Acts of Assembly of 1914, or said Chapter 550 of the Acts of Assembly of 1906, or of said Chapter 407 of the Acts of Assembly of 1924, or of any rights and remedies thereof or in relation thereto, but all such rights and remedies shall remain and be enforceable the same as though this Act had not been passed.

1894, ch. 485, sec. 154. 1918 Code, sec. 223.

200. The police limits of Frederick City shall be as the same were originally fixed and described in Section 2 of Chapter 74 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1870, namely: Beginning at the forty-four mile stone on the Baltimore and Fredericktown turnpike road, thence with a straight line to a point on or near the Georgetown turnpike, so as to include the brick house formerly owned by John Hughes; thence with a straight line to a point on or near the Jefferson turnpike, so as to include the house formerly owned by John McPherson, thence with a straight line to a point on or near the Montevue turnpike, so as to include the house formerly owned by Christopher Meyers; thence with a straight line to a point not far from the Woodsboro turnpike, so as to include the house formerly owned by John Graham; thence with a straight line to the mouth of Carroll Creek; thence with a straight line to the aforesaid forty-four mile stone; and all ordinances heretofore passed by the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick to preserve the peace, order and quiet of Frederick or that may hereafter be passed, shall apply to said police limits and to all persons therein; and the justices of the peace of election district number two of Frederick County shall have power to apprehend and try any and all persons violating any of the provisions of said ordinances within said police limits, and to enforce the fines, penalties and punishments therein prescribed.

1894, ch. 485. 1914, ch. 9, sec. 154. 1918 Code, sec. 224.

201. The boundaries of the lots, streets and alleys in said city are as described on the surveys and plats thereof in the office of the city register or City Engineer; and the said plats and surveys shall be received as the boundaries of the lots, streets, lanes and alleys thereof.

MAYOR.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 153. 1918 Code, sec. 225.

202. No person shall be Mayor of the city unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States, above the age of twenty-one:
