

and terms of sale in one or more newspapers published in said city prior to the day of sale; and after deducting the amount due for keeping, together with all expenses attending such sale, then to pay over the surplus, if any, to the owner.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 260. 1918 Code, sec. 334.

310. Before proceeding as above, it shall be necessary for such livery stable keeper to state an account for the keeping of such horse, mare or gelding or vehicle, and prove the same before a justice of the peace for Frederick County, who, upon being satisfied by proof of demand, and refusal or neglect to pay on the part of the owner, shall thereupon issue his warrant authorizing such sale as aforesaid; provided, that the proprietor of such livery stables shall set up on his premises, in some conspicuous place, a copy of the two foregoing sections, printed in large type, and his rates of livery.

1892, ch. 287. 1918 Code, sec. 335.

311. If any person shall hire from any livery stable keeper in Frederick City any horse, mare, gelding or vehicle of any description whatsoever, to go to any certain place, or any certain distance, and shall secretly use said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle for a greater distance, or in going to some other place, with the intent to evade payment for such increased use; and shall fail or refuse to immediately pay the said livery stable keeper a reasonable compensation for the additional use of said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle, which additional compensation shall be rated in proportion to the increased distance and use, and also for any damages or injury done to such horse, mare, gelding or vehicle, such person shall on conviction before any justice of the peace of Frederick County, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, said fine to be paid to the party aggrieved, and upon failure or refusal to pay said fine and costs shall be committed by such justice of the peace to the jail of Frederick County for a period not exceeding six months; and if either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of said justice of the peace, there shall be a right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Frederick County, and in case judgment of the justice of the peace is against the accused, he shall on appeal, enter into recognizance with security to be approved by the justice of the peace, and in every such case the appeal shall be taken within ten days after judgment entered.
