

ordinances of said city, according to the tenor of the commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of the State.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 238. 1896, ch. 31, sec. 238. 1918 Code, sec. 346

321. In all cases in which any person shall be found guilty of violating any of the ordinances of the corporation of Frederick, it shall be lawful for the justice of the peace of election district number two in Frederick County, trying said cause, upon conviction of the offender, to impose the fine prescribed by the particular ordinance under which said person is tried, and upon failure or refusal of the party convicted thereof to pay such fine and costs to commit the person convicted to the jail of Frederick County for the time prescribed by said ordinance, unless the person so convicted shall pay such fine and costs before the day limited in such commitment, in which case the justice who tried the cause shall issue his order to the Sheriff to release said person.

1917, ch. 4, sec. 2. 1918 Code, sec. 347.

322. In Frederick City, the justice of the peace who tried and committed a vagrant or other offender of a municipal law or ordinance is hereby authorized and directed, whenever practicable, to make an assignment of such person to employment on the county roads or on the streets of the city, and the Sheriff or other officer into whose custody said person has been committed is hereby ordered to comply with any such order for assignment, and the person ordered to work by the Justice of the Peace is to be guarded, if he works upon the streets of the city, by the Superintendent of Streets or by any other person deputized by the Sheriff, and if he works upon the roads of the county, then he shall be guarded by the Road Supervisor of the district in which the said person works, and the Sheriff is hereby authorized to deputize for this purpose any one of the said officials or other persons to take charge of the said persons while so employed.

Appeals.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 253. 1896, ch. 31, sec. 253. 1918 Code, sec. 348.

323. In all appeals from the judgment of the justice to the Circuit Court for Frederick County, the party appealing shall give bond with at least two sureties, to be approved by said justice, in a penalty double the amount of the fine imposed, and the cost which may accrue on such appeal, which penalty shall be adjudged by such justice and conditioned that if the party appealing shall not prosecute such appeal with effect at the next term of the Circuit Court, and also pay and satisfy said Mayor and Aldermen in case the judgment of the justice be affirmed, as well as the fine and costs adjudged by the said justice, as also all cost that shall be awarded by the said court, then the said bond to be and remain in full force and effect, otherwise to be of no effect, and no such appeal shall be
