

1898, ch. 2, sec. 270D. 1918 Code, sec. 354.

329. In case of any vacancy in the number of said Supervisors of Elections occurring when the Legislature is not in session, the Governor shall appoint some eligible person to fill such vacancy during the remainder of the term of office of the person originally appointed; but if the latter was appointed as the representative of a political party, then only a person belonging to the same political party shall be eligible at his successor; and it shall be the duty of the Governor, before appointing such successor, to request the City Executive Committee representing such political party in the city to designate candidates for such successor, in the same manner as in the case of an original appointment; and if the Governor shall see fit not to appoint any one of the persons so designated, he shall file his reasons for not doing so, as in case of an original appointment, and he shall appoint as and from the lists, as provided in case of an original appointment.

1898, ch. 2, sec. 270E. 1918 Code, sec. 355.

330. Said Board of Supervisors shall have an office, and shall provide all necessary ballot boxes, and ballots, and all registry books, poll books, tally sheets, blanks and stationery of every description, with printed headings and certificates necessary and proper for the registry of voters and conduct of elections, and for every incidental purpose connected therewith, and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, as above provided. It shall be the duty of the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Frederick to allow the reasonable use of the public buildings in Frederick City, by the Election Supervisors thereof, and to light and heat the same for such use, and in all proper ways to facilitate them in the discharge of their duties as such supervisors.

1898, ch. 2, sec. 270F. 1918 Code, sec. 356. 1922, ch. 112, sec. 356.

331. The said Board of Supervisors of Elections may have a clerk at a salary of fifty dollars for his services during his term of office. The said clerk shall be appointed by the said Board of Supervisors, and shall be removable by them in their discretion. He shall qualify before said Supervisors, Judges and Clerks of Election.

1898, ch. 2. 1904, ch. 335, sec. 270G. 1918 Code, sec. 357.

332. The said Supervisors of Elections in the year 1904, and in every third year thereafter, shall select, before the first day of May, two persons for judges of election, and on or before the tenth day of May two more persons as judges and two persons as clerks of election for each voting precinct in said city, taking one of said judges of election and one of said clerks in making each such selection from each voting precinct from each of the two leading political parties of the State, so that such parties shall be equally represented at all times among said election officers. It shall not be necessary to appoint new judges or clerks of election for any special election to be held in said city, but the judges and clerks appointed under this Article for the general election as herein provided for shall dis-
