

shall have a good Yale lock; there shall be a slit in the lid just large enough to admit a single folded ballot at one time, and the sides and bottoms of the box shall be of clear plate glass not less than one-eighth of an inch in thickness. Each such box, when not in actual use at a polling place, shall be kept in a wooden case for the protection of the same and its contents in the transportation and storage thereof.

1898, ch. 2. 1904, ch. 329, sec. 270QQ. 1918 Code, sec. 393.

368. It shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Elections to provide ballots for every election for public officers held under this subtitle, in which any voters within said city shall participate, and to cause to be printed on the ballot the name of every candidate whose name has been certified to or filed with the proper officers in the manner herein provided for, but the said Supervisors shall not be required to print any name upon a ballot if the same shall not have been certified to them at least six days before election day. Each ballot shall contain a statement of every question to be submitted to the vote of the people at any election. Ballots other than those printed by the Board of Supervisors of Elections, according to the provisions of this subtitle, shall not be cast or counted in any election except as hereinafter provided. Nothing in this subtitle contained shall prevent any voter from writing on his ballot and marking in the proper place the name of any person other than those already printed for whom he may desire to vote for any office, and such vote shall be counted the same as if the name of such person had been printed upon the ballot and marked by the voter. Any voter may take with him into the polling place any printed or written memorandum or paper to assist him in making or preparing his ballot, except a facsimile of the ballot to be voted. Ballots shall be printed and in possession of the Supervisors of Elections at least four days before election day, and shall be subject to the inspection of the candidates and their agents. If any mistake be discovered, it shall be the duty of said Supervisors to correct the same without delay; and if said Supervisors shall decline or refuse to make correction, then, upon the sworn petition of any qualified voter who would have the right to vote for such candidate at the approaching election, the Circuit Court for Frederick County may, by order, require said Supervisors of Elections to correct such error or to show cause why such error should not be corrected.

1898, ch. 2, sec. 270RR. 1918 Code, sec. 394.

369. The form and arrangements of the ballot shall be as follows: All ballots shall contain the name of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been certified to and filed according to the provisions of this subtitle, and not withdrawn in accordance herewith, and shall contain no other names. The names of candidates nominated by each party shall be grouped together upon each ballot, and each group shall be headed by the name of the political party by which the candidates comprised in said group were placed in nomination, as de-
