

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1896, ch. 4, sec. 289. 1918 Code, sec. 487.

487. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in Frederick County, to wit: For election district number one, four justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside at the Point of Rocks, and three constables; for election district number two, three justices of the peace and five constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number five, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number six, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number seven, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number eight, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number nine, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number ten, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number eleven, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number twelve, four justices of the peace, and four constables; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fourteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fifteen, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number sixteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seventeen, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside at Johnsville, and two constables; for election district number eighteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number nineteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number twenty, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number twenty-one, two justices of the peace and two constables.

1929, ch. 428.

488. Whenever any civil action of debt, distraint, replevin, attachment or any other civil action whatsoever within the jurisdiction of a Justice of the Peace, is instituted or begun, by any plaintiff or plaintiffs residing within or without Frederick County, either individually or as a partnership or corporation, before a Justice of the Peace in any of the election districts in Frederick County including the Justices of the Peace in Frederick City, against any defendant or defendants in Frederick County, said plaintiff or plaintiffs, shall at the time of the bringing of his, her, their or its suits, pay to the said Justice of the Peace, in advance, all the costs covering institution of suit, service of process including all Sheriff's or Constable's fees, and all other costs which may be involved as far as can be determined by the Justice of the Peace in carrying the proceedings to a conclusion, whatever kind of civil proceedings they may be, said costs so paid in advance to be apportioned and paid by the said Justice to the Constable in or Sheriff of Frederick County as they or either may be entitled and to said Justice himself, said costs or fees to