

the Acts of the Maryland Legislature of 1914, nor as restricting any control which the State Board of Health of Maryland is empowered to exercise within the corporate limits of the town of Mt. Airy.*

See Carroll County for bond issue.

MT. PLEASANT.

1900, ch. 580, sec. 373A. 1918 Code, sec. 586.

609. It shall not be lawful for the owner or owners of any horses, cattle, hogs or sheep to allow them to pasture or run at large along the turnpike known as the Frederick (or Liberty) turnpike, on both sides of which is located the village of Mt. Pleasant, the limits of the above prohibition to extend from the culvert, which passes under said turnpike a short distance west of the Boogher property on the west, to the culvert near the property of Edward Snyder on the east, and on all public roads within a radius of one mile from the public school house in Mt. Pleasant, Frederick County, Maryland.

1900, ch. 580, sec. 373B. 1918 Code, sec. 587.

610. For every horse, cow, calf, hog or sheep found running at large or pasturing upon the above described turnpike, and between and within the above named limits, the owner or owners thereof, shall, when adjudged guilty of the violation of the preceding section, pay a fine of one dollar ($1.00) for each head of such live stock found at large or pasturing between the above named limits, and they shall also pay the costs of the prosecution.

1900, ch. 580, sec. 373C. 1918 Code, sec. 588.

611. Any justice of the peace of Frederick County shall have jurisdiction of any violation of the preceding sections of this sub-title. Any person offending against the provisions of the said sections and being convicted thereof, shall forfeit the fine named in the preceding section of this sub-title. The amount of such fine shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Frederick County for the use of Frederick County, and if the offender shall fail to pay the fine and costs he or they shall be committed to the jail of Frederick County for every such offense for not less than ten days nor more than sixty days.

1900, ch. 580, sec. 373D. 1918 Code, sec. 589.

612. Any one who has been adjudged guilty of a violation of this law by a justice of the peace as aforesaid has a right to appeal from said judgment to the circuit court for said county, but sentence to jail shall not be stayed unless he gives bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of fifty ($50.00) dollars to prosecute said appeal with effect at the next term of said court, which bond shall be liable for said fine and all costs of the prosecution to that amount.

*This Act was ratified by the voters as required by sec. 20, ch. 126, 1924.
