

and immorality, to provide for the maintenance of order and quiet around and upon church properties, to punish and fine breaches of the peace, and to preserve the peace, order and quiet of the town, to provide for the assessment of all property within the taxable limits of the town or to adopt and use the assessments of said property as made by the assessors for Frederick County as a basis for taxation, and to levy and collect taxes thereon necessary to carry into effect the ordinances of the town, said tax not to exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars in any year, to provide for the licensing of peddlers, hucksters and any persons trading or selling any produce, livestock or merchandise on the streets of said town, and to tax all telephone, telegraph and railroad poles fifty cents per annum, and to pass all ordinances necessary for the good government of the town.

1924, ch. 120, sec. 9B.

622 The Burgess and Council of Myersville are hereby authorized and empowered whenever, in their judgment, the public interests or convenience require it, to provide by ordinance for the grading, paving, curbing and sewerage, or drainage or drain, or for the grading, or paving, or curbing, draining or sewerage, and for the regrading, repaving, recurbing, resewerage, or for the regrading, repaving, or recurbing or resewerage in such manner, at such time and with such material as they shall see fit, of any street or streets, lane or lanes, alley or alleys, or any portion thereof, in the town of Myersville, now condemned, ceded, opened as a public highway, or which may be hereafter condemned, ceded, opened, widened, straightened or altered according to the laws and ordinances relating to the same; and also for assessing the costs of any such work in whole or in part upon the property binding upon such street or streets, lane or lanes, roads, alley or alleys, or part thereof, according to such rule or basis as they may determine, and for collecting said assessment as other town taxes are collected, or in such manner as may be prescribed by ordinance of the Burgess and Council of Myersville, either before or after the work shall have been done; provided that before the passage by the Burgess and Council of any ordinance requiring the whole or any portion of the costs to be assessed upon the property, ten days' notice shall be given by the Burgess in some newspaper published in or nearest said town in Frederick County, notifying all persons interested to appear, and giving them the opportunity to be heard before the Burgess and Council at such time as shall be provided in said notice; and the Burgess and Council of Myersville are hereby authorized and empowered to provide by ordinance for the appointment of a Committee of the Burgess and Council, or such other person or persons as they shall appoint, not exceeding three, who shall act as Councilman or Councilmen, to determine the amount of the assessment to be made upon any such property under the provisions of this Act; and the ordinance or ordinances passed in pursuance hereof, and after the Councilman or Councilmen, so appointed shall have completed their apportionment of the expenses to be