

of the town, and shall serve all civil and criminal processes that may be directed to him, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinances; and they may, from time to time, appoint such additional policemen and other officers as may be required for the preservation of order in said town. The burgess may also direct civil and criminal processes to the sheriff of Frederick County or to a duly qualified county constable, and when so directed the said sheriff or county constable, as the case may be, shall serve the same within the police limits of said town.

1904, ch. 94, sec. 13. 1918 Code, sec. 601.

625. All fines, forfeitures and penalties under the ordinance of the corporation shall be recoverable before the burgess or any one of the councilmen; and any person refusing to pay such fines and forfeitures shall be committed to the jail of Frederick county until payment or discharge in due course of law; and the burgess and each of said councilmen shall, in virtue of his office, have and exercise all the powers of a justice of the peace, in so far as the recovery of said fines and forfeitures is concerned, and may commit to jail for the non-payment thereof; and all moneys so collected shall be paid over to the treasurer of said corporation.

1904, ch. 94, sec. 14. 1918 Code, sec. 602.

626. The burgess and councilmen shall, by ordinance, prohibit the running at large in said town of any horses, cattle, sheep or swine.

1904, ch. 94, sec. 16. 1918 Code, sec. 603.

627. The burgess and councilmen shall have full power and authority to authorize and permit, and by an ordinance, grant to any electric or steam railroad company or telephone or telegraph company, whose road or line enters or is intended to enter the limits of the corporation of Myersville, the right and privilege of laying down and constructing its tracks and of building and grading its road along, through or over any streets, lanes and alleys of said town, subject to such regulations as may be provided by ordinance. The said burgess and council shall have power by agreement with the owners or proprietors of any county road or turnpike road running through said town to take charge and help in repair so much of said county or turnpike road as lies within the taxable limits as one of the streets of said town.

1904, ch. 94, sec. 17. 1918 Code, sec. 604.

628. Those parts of the several county roads within the limits of said town are hereby made and declared to be public streets of said town, and shall continue to be improved and repaired by the County Commissioners of Frederick County under the directions of the burgess and council of said corporation until the resources of the town will justify their improvement by said corporation, which time shall be determined by the burgess and council of said corporation.
