

New Market," and by that name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal, which they may alter at pleasure.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 377. 1918 Code, sec. 613.

635. The limits of the Town of New Market, for the purpose of taxation as well as for all other purposes, shall be as follows: Beginning for the same at the end of a line drawn due south, and five feet from an elm tree (said tree being at the west end of the town, and about fifty feet south from the middle of the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike road), then running first south eleven degrees, west thirty-two perches; second, north eighty-eight degrees, east two hundred and fourteen and seven-tenths perches; third, north two degrees, west sixty-four perches; fourth, south eighty-eight degrees, west two hundred and eleven and three-tenth perches; then fifth, south eleven degrees, west thirty-two and one-tenth perches, to the place of beginning.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 378. 1918 Code, sec. 614.

636. The male citizens of the Town of New Market, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided within the limits of the town, as hereinbefore described, for the period of six months, and within the State for the period of one year next preceding any election hereinafter provided for, and who shall be citizens of the United States, and qualified to vote under the provisions of the Constitution of this State, shall be qualified to vote at any town election.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 379. 1918 Code, sec. 615.

637. There shall be five commissioners of said town, who shall hold their office for five years from the time of their respective election, as provided in the succeeding section, and until their successors, respectively, shall be elected.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 380. 1918 Code, sec. 616.

638. On the first Thursday in May, in each and every year, one commissioner for said town shall be elected by ballot, to hold office for a term of five years, and the commissioners for the town shall be the judges of all elections held under the provisions of this sub-title of this article; and their proceedings as judges of said election shall be recorded under their direction; provided, that every commissioner, before he proceeds to act as judge of election, shall make oath before a justice of the peace for said county, that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote, and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not, in his judgment, be qualified to vote under the provisions of this sub-title of this article; and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 381. 1918 Code, sec. 617.

639. No person shall be eligible to the office of commissioner for the Town of New Market who shall not possess the qualifications of a voter,