

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413. 1918 Code, sec. 655.

677. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the Council and perform such duties as it shall direct; he shall prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the Council.

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413A. 1918 Code, sec. 656.

678. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making distresses or levying executions for taxes as are allowed county collectors; and for making arrests or serving process for violation of any ordinance of the corporation the same fees as are allowed constables for similar service; and when the bailiff willfully fails to discharge any duty of his office, he may, in addition to the remedy on his bond, be fined by the burgess in his discretion not exceeding ten dollars for any one offense, for the payment of said fine, his bond shall be responsible.

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413B. 1918 Code, sec. 657.

679. All fines and penalties and forfeitures imposed by this subtitle of this article, or any ordinance of the Council may be collected in the name of the burgess and Council, before any justice of the peace in the same manner as small debts are collected, and the delinquent shall stand committed to the county jail until the same are paid with cost.

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413C. 1918 Code, sec. 658.

680. The commissioners for the county, justices of peace, sheriff, constable and all other county and State officers, shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town.

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413D. 1918 Code, sec. 659.

681. The Council shall have the same powers as are now exercised by the State Board of Health of this State, restricted, however, to the limits of the town.

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413E. 1918 Code, sec. 660.

682. The Council may pass suitable ordinances for the protection of public buildings, churches, private buildings, shops, trees and fences in said town, from defacement or injury; and may pass ordinances to prevent trespassing on private property of any individual or corporation within its corporate limits.

1892, ch. 234, sec. 413F. 1918 Code, sec. 661.

683. The burgess shall see that all ordinances of the corporation are duly and faithfully executed and shall by virtue of his office have and exercise all the criminal jurisdiction and powers of a justice of the peace, except the collection of small debts in civil cases, and shall be entitled to the same fees as a justice of the peace for similar services.
