

not be required to pay more than sixty per centum of the cost of removing such snowdrifts. But nothing in this section shall prevent the said county commissioners from removing, or causing to be removed, snowdrifts from any public road without application or petition of such residents.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 424. 1918 Code, sec. 682.

704. The Supervisors of Roads in Frederick County shall erect and keep up at the expense of the county, at all public cross roads, and where public roads fork, indexes or finger boards pointing to the nearest town, mill or other public places where the roads lead, with the names of such places and the distances thereto legibly inscribed thereon.

See Acts of 1916, ch. 279.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 425. 1918 Code, sec. 683.

705. If any person shall wantonly deface, injure or pull down any such index or finger board, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars for each offense, to be recovered before a justice of the peace in the same manner as small debts are recoverable, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 11, sec. 426. 1918 Code, sec. 684.

706. The county commissioners, in appointing road supervisors, shall not appoint any one road supervisor to have control or supervision over more than ten miles of public road.

See Acts of 1916, ch. 279.

1912, ch. 420, sec. 1. 1918 Code, sec. 685.

707. It shall be unlawful for anyone owning land along and abutting on the public highways of Frederick County to build or renew fencing along said public highways of Frederick County, except it be a barnyard or garden fence, with any other material than wire, excepting the posts used for the construction of said fencing, which may be wood, iron or other material.

1912, ch. 420, sec. 2. 1918 Code, sec. 686.

708. All new construction or renewals of old fencing requiring new material in part shall be subject to the provisions of this subtitle.

1912, ch. 420, sec. 3. 1918 Code, sec. 687.

709. The Board of County Commissioners of Frederick County and the Road Engineer, if there be a Road Engineer in said county, shall have full control and power to execute the provisions of this subtitle.

1912, ch. 420, sec. 4. 1918 Code, sec. 688.

710. In any case of a refusal on the part of the land owner (who elects to have a fence along the public highway) to comply with the provisions of this subtitle, it shall then be lawful under this subtitle for the