

of the case. He shall pay over to the Town Treasurer, on the first Monday of each month, the public moneys in his hands, and when required by the Commissioners, he shall report, in writing, the general state of the town, and at the same time he may recommend any matters as he may think will promote its interest. He shall have the right to veto any order, ordinance or resolution incurring any debt, or paying out, or in any way appropriating any money; and such order, resolution or ordinance, immediately after its passage, shall be sent to the Burgess for his approval or disapproval, and he may return the same with his approval or disapproval to the same meeting at which it was passed; within ten days after the passage of any such ordinance, resolution or order, the Burgess shall act on the same, and if he shall approve it, or fail to act on it, within ten days of its passage, which fact shall be endorsed by the Clerk of the Board, it shall become operative and effectual; but if the Burgess shall veto any such order, resolution or ordinance, he shall notify the clerk of the fact, and transmit his reasons in writing to the Commissioners at their next regular meeting or special meeting, whichever shall first occur, and such order, resolution or ordinance, shall not become operative and effectual unless passed over his veto by the affirmative vote of all the members of the Board. If at any time the Burgess shall think any person appointed to office by him shall be incompetent or unfaithful to the duties of his office, he may file a written statement of charges against him with the Commissioner, a copy of which shall be sent to the person charged, and the Board of Commissioners shall set a time to hear the same, and if, after a full hearing, they shall find such officer incompetent or unfaithful, the Burgess shall remove him from office, and with the consent and approval of the Commissioners, as provided in the 834th Section of this subtitle, shall appoint a proper person to fill his place. In the performance of his duties, said Burgess shall receive the same fees allowed justices of the peace in similar cases, and an appeal from his judgment may be taken to the Circuit Court for the county, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon an appeal from a justice of the peace. The Burgess shall have power to summon witnesses, to administer oaths, and to certify the same in all matters properly pertaining to said corporation, justice of the peace, sheriffs, constables and all other county and State officers, shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town.
