

1914, ch. 237, sec. 21. 1918 Code, sec. 816.

846. The Bailiff shall attend the meetings of the Board of Commissioners when required, and perform such duties as it may direct. It shall be his duty to serve all process issued under and by virtue of the laws, ordinances and resolutions of the corporation, which shall come into his hands, and to make return thereof according to law, and it shall be his duty diligently to enquire into and give immediate information to the Burgess of all offenses committed against the laws and ordinances of the corporation and under his direction rigidly enforce the same.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 22. 1918 Code, sec. 817.

847. The Bailiff shall receive the same fees for making arrests or serving process for violation of any ordinance of the corporation, as are allowed constables for similar cases, and when the Bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duty of his office, he may, in addition to the remedy on his bond, be fined by the Commissioners in their discretion, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offense for the payment of which said fine his bond shall be liable.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 23. 1918 Code, sec. 818.

848. The Burgess and Commissioners shall not expend in one year more money than the amount received for taxes and other sources for that year.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 24. 1918 Code, sec. 819.

849. The clerk, bailiff and such other officers as shall be provided for by ordinance, shall give bond to the Burgess and Commissioners in such penalties and with such sureties as said Burgess and Commissioners may require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 25. 1918 Code, sec. 820.

850. The parts of the several county roads and all streets now open and known as public streets, within the corporate limits of said town, are hereby made and declared to be public streets or avenues of said town, and shall be from time to time improved and repaired, as in the discretion of the Burgess and Commissioners, the public interests may require, and the resources of the town may justify. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to interfere with the rights of the Woodsboro and Frederick Turnpike Company in maintaining their road through said town; provided, however, that the corporation of Walkersville may establish building lines, street lines, curb lines, gutters, grades and sidewalks along said road within the corporate limits of said town in the same manner as along other highways.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 26. 1918 Code, sec. 821.

851. The Burgess and Commissioners may impose and appropriate fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of their by-laws and ordi-
