1914, ch. 237, sec. 27. 1918 Code, sec. 822.

852. In all cases in which any person shall be found guilty of violating any of the ordinances of the corporation of Walkersville, it shall be lawful, upon conviction of the offender, to impose the fine prescribed by the particular ordinance under which said person is tried, and upon failure or refusal of the party convicted thereof, to pay such fine and costs, to commit the person convicted to the jail of Frederick County for the time prescribed in said ordinance, unless the person convicted shall pay such fine and costs before the day limited in the commitment, in which case the Burgess or officer who tried the case, shall issue his order to the sheriff to release said person.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 28. 1918 Code, sec. 823.

853. The Sheriff of Frederick County shall receive and safe keep in the jail of said county, all persons who shall be committed thereto for a breach of any of the ordinances or laws of said corporation, according to the tenor of the commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of the State. And said sheriff shall receive the sum of twenty-five cents per day for boarding and keeping any such offenders.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 29. 1918 Code, sec. 824.

854. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Frederick County to pay over annually to the Burgess and Commissioners of Walkersville, one-fourth of the franchise tax the said County Commissioners shall receive under the provisions of Section 90, of Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1929, from every savings bank, institution or corporation organized for receiving deposits of money, and paying interest thereon, located within the taxable limits of Walkersville, and having its principal office therein.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 30. 1918 Code, sec. 825.

855. All ordinances heretofore passed by the Commissioners of Walkersville now in force, and not in conflict with the provisions of this sub-title are continued in force until the same are repealed or modified.

1914, ch. 237, sec. 31. 1918 Code, sec. 826.

856. The Burgess and Commissioners of Walkersville shall have power to acquire by purchase or condemnation, any land or property, or any interest therein which it may require for any public or municipal purposes, and may provide such method of condemnation of any land or property, or interest therein, situated within or without the corporate limits,
