

1929, ch. 124, sec. 3.

877. The citizens of Woodsboro of the age of twenty-one years and over who shall have resided in said town for a period of ninety days next preceding the election shall elect by ballot on the first Saturday of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and annually thereafter at such place as shall be designated by the Burgess and Commissioners, a Burgess and three Commissioners, qualified in all respects as voters and in addition thereto the Burgess and each Commissioner shall be freeholders in Woodsboro, and said Burgess and Commissioners shall hold office for the term of one year from the date of their election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

1929, ch. 124, sec. 4.

878. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the ordinances of the corporation not inconsistent with the provisions of the subtitle of this Article.

1929, ch. 124, sec. 5.

879. In the event the Burgess or any one of the Commissioners shall die, resign, remove from said town or from any other cause be disqualified, the remaining Burgess and Commissioners shall elect by a majority vote, a Burgess or Commissioners to fill the unexpired term.

1929, ch. 124, sec. 6.

880. The Burgess and each of the Commissioners before they shall enter upon the duties of their office shall qualify by taking and subscribing to an oath to be administered by a Justice of the Peace or Notary Public that they will faithfully and honestly and to the best of their ability discharge their duties of their offices.

1929, ch. 124, sec. 7.

881. The Burgess and Commissioners shall meet from time to time, as often as occasion may require, upon the business of the town and not less than once in every three months and the Burgess shall preside at all meetings and shall sign all ordinances and resolutions presented by them. A majority of the Commissioners shall constitute a quorum to do business. All ordinances, resolutions and motions when passed by the Commissioners shall be subject to the approval of the Burgess and in the event he shall veto the same then they shall not become operative unless passed by the unanimous vote of all the Commissioners elected to office.

882. The Burgess and Commissioners are hereby authorized to levy and collect either by distraint or suit at law, taxes on all real property located within the corporate limits of Woodsboro, based on the assessed value adopted by the County Commissioners of Frederick County for State and County purposes, on real estate in Woodsboro as appears of
