CLERK TO GRAND JURY.

1900, ch. 161, sec. 30A.

60. Upon the organization of each and every grand jury as now provided by law, and at the request of said grand jury signified in writing to the judge or judges of the Circuit Court, the said judge or judges are authorized and empowered to appoint a clerk who shall be a competent stenographer, who shall be subject to such rules and orders as shall be made and passed by the Circuit Court, and said clerk, if so directed and required so to do and not otherwise, shall have authority to be present at all sessions of said grand jury, and shall take and transcribe the testimony given before such grand jury, and whenever desired by the State's attorney, shall attend upon and take and transcribe the testimony given at the coroner's inquest, and all testimony so taken and transcribed shall be for the exclusive use of the grand jury and the State's attorney of said county, unless otherwise ordered by the Circuit Court.

1900, ch. 161, sec. 30B.

61. The person so appointed clerk before entering upon the duties of such office shall take and subscribe before the Clerk of the Circuit Court an oath that he will keep secret all matters and things occurring before said grand jury, or in such form as the Circuit Court may order and require.

1900, ch. 161, sec. 30C.

62. Any person appointed clerk, under the provisions of this Act, and having duly qualified, shall attend and be present at the sessions of such grand jury so empanelled in said court, and it shall be his duty to take fully and properly in shorthand any testimony given before said grand jury, and to furnish to such grand jury and the State's Attorney promptly and immediately a full and complete transcript or transcripts of such testimony so taken as the grand jury and State's attorney shall require, and he shall not permit any other person to take a copy of the same or any portion thereof, nor shall he read to or permit to be read by any person any part of same, nor shall he disclose the character or any of the contents of the same to any person or persons other than the grand jury or a member thereof and the State's attorney, except when required so to do by the order of the Circuit Court; all of said original notes and minutes shall be kept in the custody of the State's attorney, and neither a copy or memorandum of the same shall be taken from the office of the State's attorney, except for the use of a grand jury of said county or for production in court, excepting, however, when otherwise ordered by said Circuit Court, and all of said notes and transcripts of testimony may be destroyed by the State's attorney upon his application to and written authority of the said court first obtained.
