

who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all police regulations of said city and general supervision over the Fire Department thereof; one Commissioner to be known as the "Commissioner of Streets and Public Property," who shall have under his special charge the supervision of streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property of said city and be charged with the duty of keeping the streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property in a clean and sanitary condition, and with the enforcement of all rules and regulations necessary to these ends, and who shall also have under his special charge the supervision of all public improvements except as herein otherwise provided, and shall see that all contracts therefor are faithfully complied with, and that the conditions of the grant of any franchise or privilege are faithfully complied with and performed; one Commissioner to be known as the "Water and Electric Light Works Commissioner," who shall have under his special charge the construction, maintenance and operation of water and electric light and fire alarm systems and departments of said city, and shall see to the enforcement of all regulations with respect to said systems and departments; one Commissioner who shall be known as the "Commissioner of Finance and Revenue," who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all laws for the assessment and collection of taxes of every kind, and the collection of all revenues belonging to said city from whatever source the same may be derived, and who shall also examine into and keep informed as to the finances of said city, and who shall be the Treasurer of said city.

1922, ch. 96, sec. 19.

19. The Mayor as President of said City Council shall have the right to vote, as a member thereof, on all questions which may arise. The said Mayor and City Council shall have the power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of books and papers before them whenever it may be necessary for the more effective discharge of their duties.

1922, ch. 96, sec. 20.

20. The Mayor shall be the executive officer of the city, and it shall be his duty to see that all the laws and ordinances thereof are duly enforced; he shall have general supervision over all the departments of the city government, and may require at any time full and particular information from any Commissioner as to the affairs of his department: but the Mayor shall have no power to countermand any orders given by a Commissioner of any department, or in any manner whatsoever to interfere with the authority of any Commissioner in his own department; but all acts of every kind and description done by any Commissioner in his department may be modified or annulled by the Mayor and City Council as a body; and the Mayor and City Council as a body may pass any orders they may see proper in regard to any department of the city government, and such orders shall be binding upon the Commissioner of that department. And if the Mayor or any Councilman shall fail to perform any