

straight line to the Youghiogheny river at the mouth of White Rock run; then by a straight line to the summit of Bishoff's hill; then by a straight line east to the forks of county roads at the old West place; then by a straight line in an easterly direction to the summit of Negro Mountain where the county road leading from John Harman's to Accident crosses said mountain; then with the crest of Negro Mountain in a northerly direction to where the county road from Bittenger to Engle's Mill crosses said mountain; then by a straight line a northerly direction to the forks of the Morgantown road and the old National turnpike, west of Keyser; then due north to the Mason and Dixon's line; then with it due west to Winding ridge and the point of beginning.

1908, ch. 67, sec. 7 (p. 814).

158. District number six (6) shall be known as Sang Run district and shall begin at the mouth of White Rock Run on the Youghiogheny river and run thence by a straight line to the top of Bishoff's hill; then by a straight line east to the forks of county roads at the old West place; then by a straight line in an easterly direction to the summit of Negro Mountain, where the county road leading from John Harman's to Accident crosses said mountain; then with said road east to the forks of the road leading toward McHenry near John Harman's; then by a straight line to the Read spring of Meadow Mountain run on east side of Meadow Mountain; then down Meadow Mountain run to Deep creek; then down Deep creek to its mouth on the Youghiogheny river; then up said river to the mouth of Muddy creek; then up Muddy creek to the mouth of Hoyer's run; then west up Hoyer's run to its intersection with the State line; then due north with the State line to its intersection with White Rock run or a point due west of the head of said run; then to and down White Rock run to its mouth on the Youghiogheny river.

1908, ch. 67, sec. 8 (p. 815).

159. District number seven (7) shall be known as East Oakland district and shall begin at the forks of the West Union and Mason county roads at Gortner, and run in a northerly direction with the West Union and Oakland road to Oakland; then passing through Oakland by Third street to the Hooppole Ridge road, and with it to Deep creek; then up Deep creek to the State dam, then by a straight line to a point designated as the "Burnt School House"; then by a straight line to the Head spring or Broad Ford run; then with Broad Ford run to its mouth on Little Youghiogheny river; then to the Ryans Glade county road as formerly located east of Mountain Lake park and Loch Linn, and running with the Ryans Glade road crossing the Back Bone Mountains at Kelso Gap to the summit of the mountain; then running along the crest of the Back Bone Mountain in a southwesterly direction to the point where the old Moorefield turnpike formerly crossed said mountain; then with the outline of the old Moorefield turnpike in a westerly direction to the Mason county road; then with the Mason road to the forks of the West Union and Mason roads at Gortner, to the point of beginning.